(E-mail Address: seisan_daigakuin@ml.nagasaki-u.ac.jp)

7. Methods of Selection

Applicants will be selected through interviews, oral examinations, short essays, and English proficiency evaluations.

Questions are to be given and answered in English.

No written test is administered for English (the score of one of the foreign language examinations listed in “Appendix” (refer to the above) taken within the past three years from the date of the examination shall be converted and used).

(1) Examination Date

Examination for Spring Application

(Designated by the Graduate School during the following period)

From Wednesday, 5 November, 2025 to Tuesday, 11 November, 2025

Note: The Student Affairs Division will notify the details of the date and time for the examination.

(2) Allocation of points for the Academic Achievement Examination

Short Essay and Oral Examination	Interview	English	Total score
60	20	20	100

(3) Criteria for Acceptance (Pass/Fail Evaluation Criteria)

The successful applicants will be determined in descending order of their total scores from the academic achievement examination, etc. However, if the interview score is significantly low, the applicant may be deemed unsuccessful, regardless of their performance in the academic achievement examination.

The short essay, oral examination, and interview will be evaluated in the following methods.

Evaluation Methods for Short Essay and Oral Examination

A short essay and an oral examination in English will be conducted, and the basic academic abilities, fundamental knowledge in the water environment field, and English proficiency of the applicant will be comprehensively evaluated.

A short essay and Oral examination

Subject	Examination Scope and Evaluation Contents
(a) Short essay	Applicants will be requested to write a short essay in English. The topic of the essay is to be related to the topic that the student plans to study regarding the water environment or water treatment. The maximum essay length is two A4 pages. We will evaluate the short essay regarding logic, correct use of technical terms, and general English competence to assess the student's academic ability, fundamental knowledge of the water environment, and English writing ability.

(b) Oral examination	Applicants are asked questions about the short essay to evaluate whether applicants have the necessary academic ability, fundamental knowledge of the water environment, and English communication ability.

Evaluation Method for Interview

The interview will be conducted in an individual interview format by multiple examiners. Referring to the application documents, the applicant's motivation for applying, enthusiasm for learning, study status, and sociability will be comprehensively evaluated.

(4) Entrance examination over the Internet:

International students outside Japan may be eligible for Online Examinations. Applicants wishing to opt for this must consult their prospective academic supervisor in advance.

8. Notes on the Examination

- (1) Applicants must bring the Admission Ticket issued by the Graduate School of Integrated Science and Technology on the examination day.
- (2) Applicants must be at the designated rendezvous point 20 minutes before the examination starts. (Latecomers will not be permitted to take the examination.)
- (3) All cellular phones must be turned off before entering the examination room.
- (4) Applicants from distant areas need to plan the trip carefully in consideration of the possibility of inconveniences caused by the weather conditions. The examination date may be postponed in case of an unforeseen event, such as a natural disaster, on the examination day.
- (5) In principle, no supplementary examination will be available. However, a re-examination may be conducted in case of an unforeseen event.

9. Announcement of Successful Applicants
